

CLA's New Graduates Membership Gift

The Commercial Law Association has been bridging the gap between commerce and law since 1965 with a range of activities encompassing an ongoing program of MCLE Leading Edge Seminars, participation in Legislative Review Forums, and publication of leading articles embracing law and commerce through The Commercial Law Quarterly.

We would like to encourage new graduates to experience the benefits of membership of the Association for 12 months through our new graduates membership gift program.

You are invited to complete the application form and forward by fax or mail to the Association to receive the following benefits:

- Associate membership of the Association for the first 12 months (no Membership fee)
- Yearly subscription to The Commercial Law Quarterly (by email - no fee for the first 12 months)
- Regular information on member activities: receive the regular member discount to any events*
- Special invites to Association events.
- An invitation to participate in forums arranged by our Legislative Review Task Force
- Opportunity to participate in the Association's Mentoring Program
